

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
Security Committee

SECOM-D-525

22 MAY 1979

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
VIA: Deputy Director for Administration
FROM: Robert W. Gambino
Chairman
SUBJECT: Invitation to SECOM Meeting 19 June 1979
on Freedom of Information Act

1. The Security Committee has long been concerned with the impact of the Freedom of Information Act on intelligence community agencies. Aware and appreciative of your efforts toward seeking relief, I thought you might be interested in the Committee's 19 June 1979 special meeting of the Security Committee. At this time we will have representatives from the FBI, CIA and the Army discuss and demonstrate the vulnerabilities posed by Freedom of Information Act to our sensitive intelligence. The meeting will be held at FBI headquarters and hosted by the Bureau.

2. I have attached a copy of the agenda of this meeting and extend an invitation to you or members of your office to attend. STAT

FBI HEADQUARTERS AUDITORIUM

ROOM 1427
19 JUNE 1979, 0900

FBI HEADQUARTERS: Enter the FBI Building at 10th Street (one-way south) at the drive-through entrance. Escorts will be available at this location to assist in parking, obtaining visitor identification passes, and to bring you to the FBI Auditorium, Room 1427.

Lunch: If you desire to use the FBI cafeteria, check with one of the representatives or escorts. Hammel's Restaurant, with excellent food, is directly across 10th Street from the FBI drive-through entrance, O'Donnell's Sea Grill, which specializes in sea food (try the Scallops Norfolk), and Danker's, which is renowned for steaks, are within three blocks.

Tours or Visits: If you desire a tour of the Records Management Division or other areas of the building, or if you desire a special tour through the public facilities, notify the FBI representative or escort. If you want to visit with anyone at FBI Headquarters, the FBI representative will assist you.

Telephone: During the special meeting, you can be reached through FBI telephone number 324-2670. If you experience any problem, notify the FBI Security Office at 324-4901.
